STIX HOOPER & VIEWPOINT

To my fans, new listeners and all, I am very pleased to offer this live performance I recorded with some of my good friends from around the world.

This recording has many diverse kinds of the broad spectrum of the Art of Music.

It also represents the universality of music, especially in relation to Jazz, it's spontaneity, synergistic qualities and instant creativity. This recording should also provide a different reference point for the next generation.

Hope you enjoy!
Stix Hooper
